

Circle 10 Shooting Sports holds classes to certify Scouters in different disciplines in order to help provide a shooting sports program to the youth served by Circle Ten.

Attending one or more of these courses will provide you the opportunity of being certified in that particular area. Certifications are provided by different organizations, NRA, USAA, Circle Ten, depending on which class you take. Attendees for these classes should be 21 or over (some of them this is a requirement), attendees under the age of 21 must be approved by the Training Counselor.
